

Overview of (more) sample literature reviews

Language and Gender:

- What is the author comparing in the review?
- What is the sequence of topics in the review? Why is that sequence used?
- How does the author set up the body of the paper in the intro?
- What is the underlying argument of the author?
- How does the author conclude the review?

"Contact Guidance":

- What would be a good title for this review?
- What is the focus of the review?
- What is the author's underlying point?
- How does the author conclude?
- Is it easy to follow this review? Why? How could it be improved?

Apes and Language:

- How effective is the abstract as a summary of the paper?
- What is the focus/point of the author?
- How does the author conclude?