

Write a memo addressing the questions below, to be submitted at the beginning of class for lecture #9.

To what extent can the "problem" posed by the first South End Plan and Green's effort to come up with a successful strategy be framed in terms of the "Seven Step Model of Planning Practice" Where, if at all, are there theoretical or operational conflicts between the Model and the issues raised in the South End urban renewal planning process?